The current market has numerous ways to download macOS videos from the Internet. The first option is to use online tools (such as Ddownr or Y2Mate) with the disadvantage that they are full of ads and the low speed of your downloads. Another option was to download them directly from Safari, but unfortunately, the feature is no longer available from version 8.0. Another way, and that actually gives the best results, goes through installing one of the media file download programs for Mac, namely download managers or file download applications from Youtube. Currently, there are many offers that vary depending on the quality of the download, the price, the user experience, the format of the video... and for its part, not all video downloaders work for MacOS. Also, it should also be noted that unlike Google Chrome or Firefox, Safari lacks extensions to be able to save videos. In this way, and to answer the question of how to download videos on a Mac, we analyzed dozens of programs to develop with very interesting conclusions for the user. So, we invite you to read analysis of the 10 best video converters for Mac and 10 of the best video editing programs or software. 10 video download programs for Mac Developer Name Version Size (Mb) RAM (Mb) Compatibility Languages Price 1. 4K Open Media LLC 4.11.3.3 101.1 43.1 macOS version 10.13 or later 12 Free / $13 Premium 2. The program works with pretty much all the best known video playback systems (see table below) and even allows you to download audio files from SoundCloud. When downloading video or audio, you can change various settings of the same such as the quality, video resolution, format... And according to the programmer, you can also download 360o and 3D videos. One of the most interesting and interesting features of this program is the ability to download Youtube playlists, which is especially practical when it comes to music or conferences. It also has a Smart or smart mode, to adjust the quality or set the default values. Finally, you can work ad-free, making 4K definitely one of the best video download programs for Mac. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Video facebook ✓✓✓✓✓ version: 3.17.297 Size: 56 Mb Free /Premium version $19.95 macOS 10.9 or later Airy is an online tool of the company Elmedia, along with a media player, which allows the download and direct conversion of videos from Youtube. To download a video, copy and paste the URL into Airy, select the format and quality of the video, and then click the Download button. In the settings section, you can select the download folder. The app features some extra Airy features including converting the video to MP3 format, downloading it fully playlists and even subtitles. For its part, the price will depend on the subscription chosen by the user, so there are more options. Personal leave costs $19.95. The Family Pack is then $39.95 and can be used by up to 3 Macs. Last but not least, there is the equipment license for $29.95. There are also extra lifetime upgrades priced at $9.95. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Video facebook ✓✓ - Version: 4.1.4 Size: 16.1 Mb Free macOS X version 10.9 or later The MacX program has an interface that curiously resembles those of a few years ago, which is not a problem when it comes to saving the videos to your computer's hard drive. It allows you to download videos from the most popular services, including Instagram, as well as Youtube playlists and Soundcloud audio files. In the settings section, the user will be able to select the proxy server, format, and resolution of the video. Among the advantages of this application you can mention its free features, the absence of ads and the fact that there are no limitations in terms of usage, so the MacX also deserves to appear among the best video download tools for Mac. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Facebook video ✓✓✓✓ - version: 1.71 Size: 14.7 Mb Free version / Premium $9.99 / per month macOS X version 10.9 or later The Umyy Video Downloader tool allows you to download videos and playlists only from Youtube; In addition, the download is done directly from Youtube and can be used offline. It also allows directory selection and download file quality, although unfortunately, the trial version of the application only allows 1 download. To access endless downloads, the user must purchase the Premium version. As for other features, Umyy Video Downloader has a graphical interface that is very easy to use and where you just need to copy the URL of a video to proceed with its download. In general, it is a program that works well enough to download videos directly from Youtube, so if the user tries to download it from any other source, unfortunately it will not work. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Facebook video ✓✓ - Version: 1.0.9 Size: 60 Mb Free macOS X version 10.9 or later First of all, it must be said that Videoder was originally a software for downloading videos from Youtube; However, according to the seller's current description, it now allows downloading videos from over 50 online platforms. As we saw with 5 test web pages, which we also used in all mac video download applications in the list, it seems that the program does not cause any problems. A Very interesting about this program is the function of searching for audio and video files directly from the application. In addition, the user will be able to select the folder where they want to save downloads in the settings option. Videoder also allows you to download files in 4K quality so that users can view videos smoothly on their HD devices. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Facebook video ✓ - ✓✓✓✓ Read below: 10 video editing programs. Version: 1.6 Size: 20.1 Mb Free/Premium Version $19.95 macOS 10.10 or later VideoDuke is another tool to download videos for Mac with its own search engine. The main screen of the program informs the user about the possibility of downloading files from Youtube, Vimeo and Dailymotion but as we have discovered, it is able to much more (see table below). The program has, for its part, a very rare function, and is to install the tool in a browser. This way, the user will only have to click on the download option to start downloading the video. You can also change the name, quality, and location of the download. Finally, it has a unique function and is to fully download Youtube channels, which can be very useful in case the Internet fails. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Video facebook ✓✓✓✓✓ version: 3.9.9.3 Size: 31.7 Mb Free macOS X version 10.9 or later This program is a very interesting tool to extract audio from videos and save them to your MacBook. This will be very useful for people listening to audiobooks or podcasts. And it's totally free. All videos are converted directly to mp3 format or any other option in the list. Another function of the program is to change the bit or bitrate rate, output format and even tags - from the settings section. Therefore, it is the perfect complement for busy users and they do not have time to manage other video conversion programs. MediaHuman also has many similar products, such as youtube video download software, audio converter, letter or content detector or trading systems (iScream, Collegor, MediaTube). It is for all the above reasons, along with its periodic updates, so we need to include this product in our list of video downloaders for Mac. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Facebook video ✓ - - ✓✓ version: 4.4 Size: 6 Mb Free version / Premium $9.99 / per month macOS X version 10.6 or higher YTD is a very useful program for OS X and very easy to use. In addition, the software itself allows both downloading and converting the video. For his part, the user will be able to set a default format for conversion video after download; However, this is an exclusive feature of Premium accounts. In our case, and after using this app for a while, there are some details that don't convince us at all. The fact is that you can't work with many web pages, and also, there are a lot of ads and update reminders. Although on the other hand, it works pretty well with Youtube and playlists as well and allows you to work with many different formats like mp4, flv, avi, mov, wmv and mp3. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Video facebook ✓✓ - - - ✓ version: 2.1.8.24 Size: 28.8 Mb Free/premium version $19.95/month macOS version 10.13 or higher Apowersoft is a renowned provider in the field of video programs. Capture is a very interesting tool of this brand and works with most websites with videos. In addition, it has a very attractive and easy-to-manage interface, as well as a very powerful converter, capable of processing more than 20 different video formats and more than 10 audio formats. It also has a media player so you can view the video even before the download is finished. On the other hand, and as with most applications of this type, users will only be able to download 2 videos and convert only 30% of the video with the trial version. However, according to our analysis, if you are a user interested in the usual download of videos for Mac, you may be interested in the Premium version. Youtube Youtube Playlist Vimeo Instagram Dailymotion Video facebook ✓✓✓✓✓ version: 7.4.0 Size: 67.8 Mb Free/premium version $24.95/year macOS version 10.13 or higher Aimersoft (Hong Kong, China) is the company that designed this software and that features a number of very interesting functions such as downloading videos in 4K, the ability to convert videos into a wide range of devices, the screen recording option, its search engine, extracting audio from online video, downloading subtitles... However, the trial version only allows downloading of 2 files. For its part, the Premium version includes all the functions described below. thousands of web pages (Google Video, Vimeo, Vevo, Hulu, FunnyOrDie), mass download, HD video (720, 1080, 1920, 4K UHD) and setting option for Apple devices (iPhone XS/XR, iPhone 8/7/6/5/4, iPad Pro, iPad mini, iPod touch, Apple TV).
